

Module Specification

Module Summary Information

1	Module Title	Literature, Drama and Origin
2	Module Credits	20
3	Module Level	4
4	Module Code	EGL4050

5	Module Overview
This module introduces you to various aspects of literature and drama. We will examine a range of important concepts to the study of literature and drama, including authorship, form, genre, intertextuality, as well as various historical contexts. To develop skills in analysing drama, we will study the principles of dramaturgy and engage in practical explorations of a range of plays. You will develop the foundation of your knowledge through a series of lectures which are followed by workshops in which you will apply your understanding of the field through a range of practical activities. These might include: close readings of literary texts, analysis of the built environment, mini-presentations, forum posts, application of theoretical and contextual documents and/or field trips. Your formally taught sessions will be supported by pre-sessional learning activities delivered via Moodle and post-sessional reflection on the workshop's learning aims. Your independent learning will be characterised by the development of your wider creative and critical knowledge of the field which will be supported by the application and development of your research skills.

6	Indicative Content
This module introduces you to various aspects of literature and drama. We will examine a range of important concepts to the study of literature and drama, including authorship, form, genre, intertextuality, as well as various historical contexts.

7	Module Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of the module, students will be able to:
1	Describe the narrative techniques of a range of literary forms and genres, differentiating between the features of text and performance.
2	Examine the relationship between literature, drama and origins, focusing on aspects such as authorship, influence, literary history and dramatic practice.
3	Construct clear and effective arguments using appropriate scholarly practice.

8	Module Assessment
Learning Outcome	Coursework	Exam	In-Person
1-3	X

9 Breakdown Learning and Teaching Activities
Learning Activities	Hours
Scheduled Learning (SL) includes lectures, practical classes and workshops, peer group learning, Graduate+, as specified in timetable	36
Directed Learning (DL) includes placements, work-based learning, external visits, on-line activity, Graduate+, peer learning, as directed on VLE	100
Private Study (PS) includes preparation for exams	64
Total Study Hours:	200